

2nd Disaster Volunteer Interpreter Training Course

Learning Disaster Preparedness Together

- At times like this what should You do? -

Date: Saturday, November 7th, 14:00-16:00
 Location: Library Exchange Plaza LIBRA
 Rooms 301/302
▼ Cost: ¥ 0 *Volunteer Insurance (¥250)
 Participants:
 People who already volunteer
 People who want to become new volunteers
 People who understand Japanese or
 People who can volunteer using easy Japanese
 Application: Directly or by phone from October 8th to Libra International Exchange Center
 Next course, January 24 (Sun)
 What is a "disaster"?
 How should you communicate with foreigners
 during disasters?
 What should you do if a disaster happens?
 Let's learn together!

Time	Place	Course (for volunteers)	Course (for foreigners)
14 : 00	Room 301	【Description】 • Function and role of the multilingual support center in the event of a disaster • The role of volunteers • Tools that can be used	【Description】 • What is a "disaster"? • Disaster services for foreign citizens • Description of "Hinan goods"
15 : 00	Room 301 Room 302	Crossroad game (With a volunteer practicing what to do when you are in a disaster)
15 : 50 16 : 00	Room 301 Room 302	• Registration of volunteers and disaster prevention • About future training courses

Please cooperate in wearing a mask, measuring your temperature, and disinfecting your hands!

Application / Contact Information
 Libra International Exchange Center (LICC)
 TEL: 0564-23-3148
 (9: 15-17: 00 closed on Wednesdays)
 E-mail: libralicc@city.okazaki.lg.jp