

<6> Health/Medical Service

Maternal Health and Child Health

Category	Intended for	Location	Description	Contact Information
Issuance of Maternal Health and Child Health Handbook (boshitechō)	Pregnant women	City Hall, Fukushi Kaikan, 3 rd floor.	Issuance of Maternal Health and Child Health Handbook (boshitechō) upon notification of pregnancy, issuance of health checkup tickets for pregnant women and infants	Family & Child Division ☎ 23-7683 FAX 23-6833
Hands-on prenatal classes	Pregnant women, husbands (partners), family	City Public Health Center	Hands-on seminars (bathing practice), dental health / lecture on food & nutrition, lecture on medicine	Health Promotion Division ☎ 23-6084 FAX 23-5071
Drop-in consultation desk (Machikado Hotto Kyoushitsu)	Pregnant women, newborns	Local Community Centers	Childcare/nursing consultations, weight measurement
Checkup for 4 month old infants	Infants 3 to 4 months old	Cooperating medical institutions	Medical examination by a pediatrician, body measurements
Checkup for 18 month old toddlers	Toddlers 1 year and 6 months old to 1 year and 11 months old	City Public Health Center	Medical examination by a pediatrician and dentist, body measurements, child care consultation (for those interested)	Health Promotion Division ☎ 23-6084 FAX 23-5071
Checkup for healthy 3-year-olds	3 year old children
System for fertility treatment subsidy (Funin chiryōhi hojo)	Married couple undergoing general/specific fertility treatment
Application for medical benefits related to the treatment of specific pediatric chronic diseases (Shōni mansei tokutei shippei iryō kyūfu)	Patients under the age of 18 suffering from specific chronic diseases	City Public Health Center	Medical expenses are partially subsidized. (Must satisfy medical care treatment, and other requirements.)	Health Promotion Division ☎ 23-6069 FAX 23-5071
Application for medical benefits related to services and support for persons with disabilities (Jiritsu shien iryōhi kyūfu)	Patients under 18 who may become physically disabled and are undergoing medical treatment expected to be effective		City Hall, Fukushi Kaikan, 1 st floor.
Application for nurture medical care benefits (Yōiku iryō kyūfu)	Infants born prematurely who need to be hospitalized	City Hall, Fukushi Kaikan, 3 rd floor.	Medical expenses and milk charges are partially covered by public funds. (Must satisfy requirements regarding income, etc.)	Family & Child Division ☎ 23-7683 FAX 23-6833

Health & Hygiene

Vaccination

Health & Disease Prevention Division ☎ 23-6174 FAX 23-6621

Rotavirus, Hib, pediatric pneumococcus, Hepatitis B, BCG, first-stage DPT-IPV, second-stage DT, first- and second-stage measles-rubella, chicken pox, first-stage and second-stage Japanese encephalitis, cervical cancer, influenza (for people age 65 or older), pneumococcal vaccine for the elderly (for people age 65 or older).

Medical tests & screenings

Health Promotion Division ☎ 23-6639 FAX 23-5071

Cancer screening, osteoporosis screening, hepatitis screening, periodontal disease check-up, brain examination, lung examination.

Intractable Disease Control

Disability Welfare Division ☎ 23-6180 FAX 25-7650

Consultation specializing in intractable diseases, issuing and receiving applications for medical benefits program for specific diseases [Tokutei iryōhi (shitei nanbyō) shikyū nintei]

Mental Health Welfare

【Various applications】

Disability Welfare Division ☎ 23-6180 FAX 25-7650

Application for and issuance of handbook of health and welfare for the mentally disabled (Seishin-shōgaisha hoken fukushi techō), application for medical benefits for services and support for persons with disabilities (Jiritsu shien iryōhi) in terms of psychiatric rehabilitation (seishin tsūin)

【Consultations】

Health Promotion Division ☎ 23-6715 FAX 23-5071

Mental health welfare consultation, specialized mental health consultations (by subject)

Testing for HIV and Other Diseases

Health & Disease Prevention Division ☎ 23-5082 FAX 23-6808

Tests for HIV, syphilis, gonorrhea, chlamydia infection, and Hepatitis B and C virus, are available for persons with possible infection. For details, please check the Okazaki City homepage or call.

Rubella Antibody Test / Vaccination cost assistance

Health & Disease Prevention Division ☎ 23-6714 FAX 23-6621

In order to prevent congenital rubella syndrome, we are subsidizing a rubella antibody testing and vaccination program. For details, please check the Okazaki City homepage.

Test for Hepatitis B and C

Health & Disease Prevention Division ☎ 23-5082 FAX 23-6808

Blood test is available for persons concerned about possible hepatitis viral infection. Anonymous testing is not available. The test is free of charge. (There will be an issuing fee for a certificate of the results.) For details, please check the Okazaki City homepage or call.

Medical Benefits for Hepatitis B and C

Health & Disease Prevention Division ☎ 23-5082 FAX 23-6808

Aichi Prefecture accepts applications for medical benefits to alleviate the financial burden associated with expenses for treatment of hepatitis B and C.

Regular Tuberculosis Checkup

Health & Disease Prevention Division ☎ 23-5082 FAX 23-6808

It is necessary for persons aged 65 or older to have an annual chest X-ray examination. This checkup is conducted at the same time as the individual-specific examination (kobetsu tokutei kenshin) of the National Health Insurance plan.

Kokoro Hotline (mental health counseling hotline)

☎ 64-7830

Please do not hesitate to share your worries and feel free to call for consultation.

【Day and Time】

This service is available 1:00pm to 8:00pm, Monday through Friday (excluding national holidays and year-end holidays).

Medical Safety Consultation

☎ 23-5089 FAX 23-5041

Consultation service on medical institutions in Okazaki is available. Information on nearby medical institutions, concerns about medical care and medical practice, and other issues, do not hesitate to call the phone number above.

【Day and Time】

This service is available 8:30am to 12:00pm, 1:00pm to 5:00pm, Monday through Friday (excluding national holidays and year-end holidays).