Valuing both first languages and Japanese

Japanese trial class for children & courses aimed at parents

~What parents can do at home for children with connections to foreign countries~

It would be great if the children could use both their mother tongue and Japanese well in the future, right?
Beginning in December, you can listen to the story of "PikaPika" in the Japanese language class for children!

Everyone can talk about their children's studies, their anxieties about their lives, and their worries!
It's okay to participate with your child! There are also staff who can speak foreign languages!

Location : Okazaki City Library and Community Plaza

LIBRA Conference Room 302

Date : July 9th 14:00~16:00

Target : About 15 pairs of parents and children who have connections to foreign countries
