

Both Japanese and the language spoken by children at home are of equal importance.

Japanese classes for children & courses for parents.

～What you can do at home for your children (for those with foreign connections)～

Wouldn't it be great if, going forward, your children could master both their native language as well as Japanese?

Come learn about our "PikaPika" Japanese classes for children, starting in November! Talk with others your children's studies, your anxieties about their lives, and about your own worries!

Interpreters will be present to inform you of the course details!

A fun time for the children is planned, including: hiragana-play, songs, picture book readings, & kaleidoscope-making.

Where? Okazaki City Library and Community Plaza "Libra", Conference Room 301

When? Sunday, September 13th, 2:00-4:00pm

For who? Around 10 groups of parents and children (5-6 years old) with foreign roots or connections.

With Professor Takao Suzuki of Aichi Shukutoku University
